BRUCE ANTHONY WINS THE 11TH ANNUAL ORIN C. HUTCHCRAFT QUALITY SERVICE AWARD

ST. LOUIS -- Bruce Anthony, Trans Advantage, Fenton, Mo., has been awarded the 11th annual Orin C. Hutchcraft Quality Service award. This marks the first time the award has been presented to a moving industry vendor. Trans Advantage is a subsidiary of UniGroup, Inc., one of the nation's leading transportation companies.

The award is presented by the Illinois Movers' and Warehousemen's Association (IMAWA) based on the nominee's tenure and reputation in the moving business; individual community and charitable activities; and participation in the IMAWA.

Anthony began his career in the moving industry as an owner-operator after earning his bachelor's degree from Penn State. After 13 years as an owner-operator, Anthony transitioned to the moving equipment sales field and then joined Trans Advantage in 1996.

"Bruce takes great pride in servicing his customers by providing equipment and finance solutions for their companies," said Glenn Biffignani, president of Trans

Advantage. “We are pleased that Bruce’s accomplishments and dedication to the industry have been recognized by the Illinois Movers’ and Warehousemen’s Association.”

Trans Advantage sells and leases trucks, trailers and in-van equipment to the moving and storage industry, and operates a store which sells movers’ apparel and company-identified promotional items. Other Trans Advantage services include carton, tire, fuel and decal programs; truck and trailer service parts; and printing and graphic design.

UniGroup, Inc., a $2 billion transportation and relocation services company based in suburban St. Louis, Mo., operates one of the largest privately owned trucking fleets in the United States. In addition to Trans Advantage, UniGroup also owns other subsidiaries that provide goods and services to professional movers.
