

news release

For further information:
Jennifer Bonham
636-349-2508
jennifer_bonham@unigroupinc.com

10-03

UNITED VAN LINES DONATES SERVICES TO U.S. TROOPS THROUGH PROJECT "ENDURING FREEDOM"

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 6, 2003 – United Van Lines, the nation's largest household goods transportation company, has donated hauling services for 40,705 decks of cards, 1,500 magazines and 50 paperback books as a part of project "Enduring Freedom."

The purpose of "Enduring Freedom" is to support our country's military personnel who are away from home during their assignments and to bring a bit of relaxation to those who are often in austere conditions.

Bohren's Moving & Storage, Inc., a United Van Lines agent in Princeton, N.J., transported the estimated 8,736-pound shipment to Fort George G. Meade in Maryland to be included in care packages.

"We are pleased to be able to bring a bit of happiness to those men and women who are willing to protect our homeland and give their lives for our country," said Denise Hewitt, president of Bohren's. "We would also like to thank van operator Jeff Thomas for donating his time in transporting the shipment."

United Van Lines transports electronic equipment, trade show exhibits and displays, works of art, and specialized freight, in addition to household goods.

-more-

United Donates Services to U.S. Troops – add one

United, with headquarters located in suburban St. Louis, maintains a network of 1,000 affiliated agencies in 135 countries around the world. More information about United and its services can be obtained through the company's Web site at www.unitedvanlines.com.