UNIGROUP, INC. NAMES MAN AND WOMAN OF THE YEAR

ST. LOUIS – Millard (Mac) B. McDonald and Jeannine Novak have been named Man and Woman of the Year for 2002 by UniGroup, Inc., the parent company of United Van Lines, Mayflower Transit, and other transportation-related companies. The announcement was made by Richard H. McClure, president and chief operating officer of UniGroup.

McDonald and Novak were selected on the basis of professional performance and contributions to the achievement of corporate and departmental goals. The company has honored a Man and Woman of the Year annually since 1969.

McDonald joined UniGroup as a project manager in the IT department in 1998. Prior to joining UniGroup, McDonald worked in a variety of fields, including operations management, purchasing, project management, education and training, and strategic planning. McDonald holds a bachelor's degree in secondary mathematics education from Illinois State University and obtained credit hours toward a master's degree in statistics from the University of Illinois. McDonald is also certified in secondary teaching in Missouri.

Novak began her career with the UniGroup companies in 1997 as an adjuster, and then was promoted to senior adjuster prior to being named to her current position, supervisor of casualty insurance claims. Before joining UniGroup, Novak worked in an insurance capacity for a locally based
