NINE NAMED TO UNIGROUP/UNITED VAN LINES BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ST. LOUIS -- Nine agent representatives of United Van Lines, LLC, the nation's largest household goods moving company, have been elected to its board of directors, and also the board of its parent company, UniGroup, Inc. Their election was announced by Richard H. McClure, president and chief operating officer of UniGroup.

Steve Komorous, King Relocation Services, Los Angeles, Calif., and Barry Vaughn, Suddath Relocation Systems, Jacksonville, Fla., were elected to their first two-year terms on the board. Re-elected to two-year terms were Raymond (Chuck) Mattes, William B. Meyer, Inc., Bridgeport, Conn.; H. Daniel McCollister, McCollister's Transportation Group, Inc., Burlington, N.J.; John J. Planes, Planes Moving & Storage, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio; David Sabada, A-Mrazek Moving Systems, St. Louis, Mo.; James H. Alexander, Central Transportation Systems, Inc., Waco, Texas; Gerald P. Stadler, S & M Moving Systems, Santa Fe Springs, Calif.; and Thomas Andresen, Jr., T.E. Andresen, Inc., Boston, Mass. The nine were elected by fellow shareholders during the company's annual meeting, held recently in St. Louis.

During its organizational meeting, the board chose its officers, re-electing Gerald P. Stadler as chairman and chief executive officer; and H. Daniel McCollister as vice chairman; and elected Steve Herman, AAction Movers, Bismark, N.D., treasurer; and David Corrigan, Corrigan Moving Systems, Detroit, Mich., secretary.

UniGroup, Inc. is a $2 billion transportation and relocation services company with headquarters in suburban St. Louis, Mo. In addition to household goods carriers United Van Lines and Mayflower Transit, UniGroup owns other subsidiaries that provide goods and services to professional movers.
