BARRETT MOVING & STORAGE COMPANY RECEIVES UNITED VAN LINES "PRESIDENT'S QUALITY AWARD"

ST. LOUIS – Barrett Moving and Storage, Minneapolis, Minn., an agent of United Van Lines, has received the United "President's Quality Award," which recognizes the top service achievement in the carrier's U.S. family of affiliated moving agencies. Nearly 500 United agents are eligible for the honor.

The selection of Barrett Moving and Storage was announced by Richard H. McClure, president of United and of UniGroup, Inc., United's parent company. United is the nation's largest mover of household goods.

Barrett Moving and Storage is the tenth recipient of the annual award, which was established in 1995. The firm earned the recognition on the basis of its quality service performance in accordance with United's five-step quality service process, as measured by data generated through a comprehensive survey completed by customers after the move.

Barrett Moving and Storage maintains offices in Milwaukee, Wis., and Chicago, Ill., in addition to its Minneapolis headquarters. The firm became an agent for United Van Lines in 1964.
