GERALD STADLER RECEIVES UNITED VAN LINES "GENE ANDERSON/UNITED EXCELLENCE AWARD"

ST. LOUIS – Gerald P. Stadler, chairman of S & M Moving Systems, Los Angeles, Calif., and chairman of the board of directors of United Van Lines and UniGroup, Inc., United's parent company, has received the United "Gene Anderson/United Excellence award," which recognizes an individual who has made exceptional contributions to the United system. The award is named in honor of the late Gene Anderson of Lubbock, Texas, a long-time United Van Lines board member and the corporation's treasurer at the time of his death in 1985.

Stadler's selection was announced by two former UniGroup board chairmen, Mike Greenblatt and Paul Corrigan, at United's recent convention held in Phoenix, Ariz.

S & M Moving Systems is an agent for United, the nation's largest household goods transportation company, and maintains offices in Albuquerque, N.M.; Boston, Mass.; Irvine, Calif.; Phoenix, Ariz.; and San Jose, Calif.; in addition to its Los Angeles headquarters. The firm became an agent for United Van Lines in 1973.
