UNIGROUP, INC. NAMES MAN AND WOMAN OF THE YEAR

ST. LOUIS – Al Molitor and Linda Nosko have been named Man and Woman of the Year for 2004 by UniGroup, Inc., the parent company of United Van Lines, Mayflower Transit, and other transportation-related companies. The announcement was made by Richard H. McClure, president and chief operating officer of UniGroup.

Molitor and Nosko were selected on the basis of professional performance and contributions to the achievement of corporate and departmental goals. The company has honored a Man and Woman of the Year annually since 1969.

Molitor joined the company in 1987 as a claims adjuster. Prior to being named to his current position as manager of international operations, he held progressively responsible positions within the company. Molitor holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. He has served as the UniGroup Habitat for Humanity Volunteer Coordinator in 2003 and 2004, and has been active as an adult leader in the Boy Scouts of America since 1996, holding leadership positions at both the Cub Scout and Boy Scout levels.

Nosko first served as an advertising support specialist for Mayflower Transit in 1997, before being named to her current position of advertising and promotions coordinator for Mayflower. Nosko holds the designation of Certified Manager of Exhibits (CME) from the Trade Show Exhibitors Association.

UniGroup, Inc. is one of the nation's largest privately owned transportation companies. Its world headquarters offices are located in Fenton, Mo.
