SCHROEDER MOVING SYSTEMS RECEIVES UNITED VAN LINES "PRESIDENT'S QUALITY AWARD"

ST. LOUIS – Schroeder Moving Systems, Milwaukee, Wis., an agent of United Van Lines, has received the United "President's Quality Award," which recognizes the top service achievement in the carrier's U.S. family of affiliated moving agencies. Nearly 500 United agents are eligible for the honor.

The selection of Schroeder Moving Systems was announced by Richard H. McClure, president of United and of UniGroup, Inc., United's parent company. United is the nation's largest mover of household goods.

Schroeder Moving Systems is the eleventh recipient of the annual award, which was established in 1995. The firm earned the recognition on the basis of its quality service performance in accordance with United's five-step quality service process, as measured by data generated through a comprehensive survey completed by customers after the move. Schroeder has been a consistent top-quality performer throughout its time with United, achieving Customer Choice Honorable Mention in 2003 and receiving a Customer Choice award last year.

Schroeder Moving Systems maintains offices in full-service moving and storage company with locations in Appleton and Milwaukee, Wis. The firm became an agent for United Van Lines in 1947.
