A-MRAZEK MOVING SYSTEMS TRANSPORTS “RETIRED” ST. LOUIS CARDINALS’ FURNITURE TO CHARITIES

A-Mrazek moves furniture for Habitat for Humanity and local charities in need

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 12, 2005 – As the St. Louis Cardinals move into their new stadium, the old Busch Stadium’s furniture is also finding a new home. A-Mrazek Moving Systems, a St. Louis-based United Van Lines agent and the official mover of the St. Louis Cardinals, stepped in to donate its services and transport memorable and functional sets of furniture for worthy charities, including Habitat for Humanity. All furniture was donated by the St. Louis Cardinals. A-Mrazek picked up the furniture at Busch Stadium and is currently storing all of the pieces that have yet to be placed with a charitable organization.

The St. Louis Cardinals donated 60 luxury suites worth of furniture to support charitable causes in need of couches, tables and chairs. To date, 30 sets of furniture were donated to Habitat for Humanity while other sets were put in storage at A-Mrazek where charitable organizations including Americorps, Angel Arms, Gateway Housing Services and Evangelical Children’s Home came to pick up wanted pieces.

“The assistance given by A-Mrazek is unbelievable. You could say that they really stepped up to the plate,” said Marty Hendin, vice president of community relations for the St. Louis Cardinals. “Without their services, this project couldn’t have happened.”

“We enjoy giving back and supporting the community and this was a great opportunity to do just that,” said Dave Sabada, president of A-Mrazek. “Working with the St. Louis Cardinals, Habitat for Humanity and other important local charities was something we are definitely proud of and honored to have played a part.”
