ROBERT S. BRIMIGION NAMED 2004 AMSA SUPER VAN OPERATOR

ST. LOUIS – Robert S. Brimigion, a van operator for Chipman Relocations, Benicia, Calif., was recently honored as the 2004 AMSA Super Van Operator Lifetime Achievement Award Winner.

The recognition acknowledges excellent performance in the areas of operational proficiency, customer service and safety. Lifetime Achievement winners must have a minimum of 20 years experience in operating commercial motor vehicles interstate, with the most recent five spent in the household goods industry.

Brimigion has been employed with Chipman Relocations for the past five years and has driven more than one million miles throughout his career. Within the last year, he drove 100,000 miles, and had no preventable accidents and no moving violations. Brimigion has been driving commercial motor vehicles since 1974.

Brimigion has also been honored by United Van Lines throughout his career as a Van Operator of the Month four times and a Runner-Up Van Operator of the Month nine times.

United Van Lines, with headquarters in suburban St. Louis, is the nation's largest household goods mover and maintains a network of 1,000 affiliated agencies in 135 countries.
