SUDDATH RELOCATION OF FT. LAUDERDALE MOVES TO NEW FACILITY

ST. LOUIS – To meet the rapid growth and future demands for its services, Suddath Relocation Systems of Ft. Lauderdale announced its move into a new facility in Deerfield Beach. The new address is 1900 Southwest 43rd Terrace, Deerfield Beach, Fla. Suddath Relocation Systems of Ft. Lauderdale is an agent of United Van Lines, the nation's largest household goods transportation company.

The state-of-the-art, $9 million, 120,000 square-foot facility was custom built for Suddath and will function as the center for servicing the company's warehousing, fulfillment and transportation needs. "The building will be equipped with the latest in warehousing and logistics technology," said Julie Cobb, president of Suddath Relocation of Ft. Lauderdale.

The building, which is part of a much larger business park in Deerfield, will also service the growing needs of Suddath's residential and commercial moving services. Since Suddath opened its doors in 1986 it has been a major service provider for numerous corporations in the Ft. Lauderdale and Deerfield Beach areas. "Both residential and commercial moving is booming here and we have outgrown our current facility in Pompano Beach," Cobb said.

Suddath is in the final stages of the move and will open its brand new doors on April 22. "The new facility will allow Suddath the opportunity to truly showcase our expertise as a leading transportation and warehousing provider in South Florida," Cobb said.
