HORIZON MOVING SYSTEMS HELPS LOCAL HIGH SCHOOLS CREATE A SAFE NIGHT OF CELEBRATION

United Van Lines agent donates transportation of arcade games for graduation parties

ST. LOUIS – Horizon Moving Systems, Tucson, Ariz., an agent of United Van Lines, recently donated the transportation of arcade-sized video games to three local high schools for their all-night graduation parties.

Canyon Del Oro High School, Ironwood High School and Catalina Foothills High School each hosted a post-graduation party where the students could have fun with their classmates in an alcohol-, drug- and tobacco-free atmosphere. Students have the opportunity to play the games moved by Horizon, such as Dance Dance Revolution and Guitar Freaks, as well as participate in other activities in the chaperoned surroundings. Students who choose to attend the party are required to stay the entire night. If they leave the party, they cannot come back inside to ensure a controlled environment.

"All kids who attend are safe," said Harry Lakin, sales manager of Horizon Moving Systems, "and for every parent that's a relief. We are proud to be a part of this night of fun for our local graduates."
