

news release

For further information:
Jennifer Bonham
636-349-2508
Jennifer_Bonham@unigroupinc.com

192-07

Nov. 7, 2007

UNITED VAN LINES RECOGNIZES DAVID CAMBELL AS VAN OPERATOR OF THE YEAR

ST. LOUIS – David Cambell, Safeway Moving Systems, Indianapolis, Ind., an agency of United Van Lines, has been honored as a United Van Operator of the Year. Announcement of the recognition, conferred as part of the van line's annual awards program, was made by United CEO Richard H. McClure.

Cambell was one of eight honorees among 8,400 eligible van operators. Malcolm was recognized for achievement in United's special services continental fleet, which transports high-value shipments, electronics, trade shows and special commodities. He operated a total of 64,198 miles during the qualifying period.

According to McClure, Cambell qualified for the award by meeting a wide range of criteria, including claims prevention, adherence to van line policies and procedures, achievement of an exceptional safety record, and overall superior performance, as reflected by compliments received from customers. In the past year, Cambell drove with no cargo claims, no preventable accidents, and no safety violations. He has also been recognized as a past van operator of the month, as a runner-up for the AMSA Van Operator of the Year, by the Indiana Motor Truck Association, and has won 10 safety driving awards from United.

As Van Operator of the Year, Cambell received a cash award, an engraved plaque, a ring denoting his accomplishment, and a specially designed jacket.

United Van Lines, with headquarters in Fenton, Mo., maintains a network of 1,000 agencies in 135 nations around the world. More information about United and its services can be obtained through the company's Web site at www.unitedvanlines.com.