NAGLEE CELEBRATES 40-YEAR ANNIVERSARY AS UNITED VAN LINES AGENT

ELMIRA, N.Y. – Naglee Moving and Storage, an agent for United Van Lines, is celebrating 40 years of providing worldwide transportation and storage services to its customers under its van line affiliation. Founded by Sam Naglee in 1912, Naglee moves everything from homes to businesses, as well as offering the capability to haul, store, install and de-install high-end art pieces.

Phil Schweiger, president of Naglee Moving and Storage, has been with the company for 33 years and has led it through expansion of transportation services and the development of a very specialized division. With an eye toward success in a competitive service industry, Schweiger investigated the needs of the hypersensitive museum world. From that came the formation of Naglee Fine Arts, a division dedicated to the flawless handling, transportation and storage of irreplaceable collections. Naglee Fine Arts offers a one-of-a-kind conservation storage facility that was developed in 1995 in order to preserve fine artwork for customers. The facility is 17,000 square feet and kept at 67 degrees with 45 percent relative humidity in order to maintain a consistent, museum-type environment. Motion, smoke and heat detectors; electric eyes; and magnetic breaks, help ensure customers' items are safe. Centrally located, Naglee's fleet is within a day's drive of Boston, New York, Washington or Detroit.
