UNITED VAN LINES RECOGNIZES JEFFREY THOMAS AS VAN OPERATOR OF THE YEAR

ST. LOUIS – Jeffrey Thomas, Bohren’s Moving & Storage in Robbinsville, N.J., an agency of United Van Lines, has been honored as a United Van Operator of the Year. Announcement of the recognition, conferred as part of the van line’s annual awards program, was made by United CEO Richard H. McClure.

Thomas was one of eight honorees among more than 8,000 eligible van operators. Thomas was recognized for achievement in United’s special services agency fleet, which transports high-value shipments, electronics, trade shows and special commodities. He operated a total of 114,393 miles during the qualifying period.

According to McClure, Thomas qualified for the award by meeting a wide range of criteria, including claims prevention, adherence to van line policies and procedures, achievement of an exceptional safety record, and overall superior performance, as reflected by compliments received from customers. In the past year, Thomas drove with no cargo claims, no preventable accidents, and no safety violations.

As Van Operator of the Year, Thomas received a cash award, an engraved plaque, a ring denoting his accomplishment, and a specially designed jacket.

United Van Lines, with headquarters in Fenton, Mo., maintains a network of 1,000 agencies in 135 nations around the world. More information about United and its services can be obtained through the company’s Web site at www.unitedvanlines.com.
