A-MRAZEK SCORES WORLD-CLASS BMW CHAMPIONSHIP MOVE

United Van Lines agent goes behind the scenes at Bellerive Country Club

ST. LOUIS – Organizing large events can be stressful down to the very last detail, and finding adequate storage solutions is no exception. A-Mrazek Moving Systems, a St. Louis-based United Van Lines agent, was chosen to handle the moving and storage needs for the 2008 BMW Championship at Bellerive Country Club in St. Louis. While most people recognize moving and storage companies like A-Mrazek for its outstanding residential moving capabilities, moving companies can also play a large part in making special events, like the BMW Championship, happen.

A-Mrazek was selected to provide moving and storage resources to store several pieces of furniture that were cleared out to accommodate the BMW Championship. Everything from wrought iron patio furniture to upscale indoor furniture were cleared out of Bellerive Country Club to make way for the large crowds expected to attend the tournament. United Van Lines was chosen to handle the prestigious move because of its strong reputation and long history in offering moving solutions to top tier organizations.

“We are honored to work with Bellerive Country Club and the PGA to make this wonderful event happen in St. Louis. It’s fascinating to see the many ways our customers are using United Van Lines, which has proven time and again to be a great moving alternative for special events and other non-traditional moves,” said David Sabada, president of A-Mrazek.
