FRY-WAGNER ANNOUNCES NEW VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL MANAGER FOR ST. LOUIS FACILITY

ST. LOUIS – Fry-Wagner Moving and Storage, an agent for United Van Lines, recently announced the promotion of Dan Zessinger to vice president and general manager of its St. Louis branch facility.

“We’re very excited to promote Dan into this important leadership role. During his 11 years with the Fry-Wagner organization, he has done a remarkable job of cultivating a large, diverse customer base. Dan’s energy and dynamic leadership skills will continue to be a great asset to our organization as we aggressively follow our motto of ‘getting and keeping customers’,” said Larry Fry, president of Fry-Wagner.

Zessinger most recently served as the vice president of global sales at Fry-Wagner’s St. Louis facility. Earlier this year, he was named a Member of United Van Lines’ prestigious 2008 “Inner Circle” Sales Club and is a nine-year consecutive Master’s Club Sales winner.
