UNIGROUP, INC. RECOGNIZED BY CIO MAGAZINE AS ONE OF THE CIO 100 AWARD HONOREES

ST. LOUIS – IDG's CIO magazine today announces UniGroup, Inc. as a recipient of the 2008 CIO 100. The 21st annual award program recognizes organizations around the world that exemplify the highest level of operational and strategic excellence in information technology (IT).

"The CIO 100 honors organizations that have used technology in innovative ways to generate value to the business," said Abbie Lundberg, Editor in Chief of CIO magazine. "Unlike other top lists, it's not just about who's biggest—it's about who's doing the most interesting and relevant things."

"UniGroup is again honored to be among the distinguished companies selected for the prestigious CIO 100 award," said Randy Poppell, Chief Information Officer for UniGroup. "Our focus on technology innovation to drive operational excellence plays a key role in UniGroup's ongoing success. This recognition is confirmation of the commitment to innovation that is shared within UniGroup's Information Technology team. I am very proud of the team's accomplishments as we continue to develop solutions that are transformational for our business."

The 2008 CIO 100 awards will be presented at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs, Colorado, on August 26 at the conclusion of the tenth annual CIO 100 Symposium® and Awards Ceremony.

About the CIO 100

The recipients of this year's CIO 100 award were selected through a three-step process. First, companies filled out an online application form detailing their innovative practices in both business and IT. Next, a team of judges reviewed the applications in depth, looking for unique practices and substantial results. Finally, CIO editors reviewed the judges' recommendations and voted on the final 100. Once the top 100 honorees were selected, several honorees were chosen to receive an additional special award. Complete coverage of the 2008 CIO 100 awards will be in the August 15 issue of CIO magazine and available online at www.cio.com on June 1.
