FRY-WAGNER MOVING & STORAGE RECEIVES SAFETY AWARD FROM THE AMERICAN MOVING AND STORAGE ASSOCIATION

LENEXA, Kan. – Fry-Wagner Moving & Storage, Lenexa, Kan., an agent for United Van Lines, has been awarded the 2008 Fleet Safety Award by the American Moving and Storage Association (AMSA).

The Fleet Safety Award is presented to those that demonstrate the best weighted combination of the lowest Department of Transportation (DOT) recordable accident rate per million miles of vehicle operation, and the lowest vehicle and driver out-of-service rates. Fry-Wagner was the winner in the under one million miles category.

Fry-Wagner received the Fleet Safety Award on the heels of being named United Van Lines' 2008 President's Quality Award Winner for achieving exceptional Customer Survey performance scores.

"We are very excited to receive AMSA's Fleet Safety Award and are proud of our accomplishments in 2008," said Larry Fry, president of Fry-Wagner. "Our service staff is poised and ready to continue these high performance levels in 2009 and beyond!"
